

BRPASW Code of Ethics

All BRPASW members, representatives, or invited guests, shall:

- Conduct themselves and their activities in a professional and business-like manner.
- Abide by the by-laws and policies of BRPASW.
- Not engage in sales activities or solicitation unless invited to do so.
- Not conduct activities contrary to the purposes and objectives of BRPASW.
- Not distribute or post any materials of any kind at a BRPASW activity without the approval of the Board of Directors.
- Not use the BRPASW name or logo unless approved by the Board of Directors.
- Not use the BRPASW member lists except for BRPASW Business. These lists shall not be provided to non-members without the written permission of the Board of Directors. Members who do not follow this policy will be subject to the loss of membership.

Business Recovery
Planners Association of Southeastern Wisconsin

P.O. Box 211
Milwaukee, WI 53201-0211

For additional information regarding the organization and membership please go to the web site:

www.brpasw.com

or e-mail:

membership@brpasw.com

Business Recovery
Planners
Association of Southeastern Wisconsin

Business Recovery Planners Association of Southeastern Wisconsin (BRPASW)

Disaster recovery, business continuity, and contingency planning are important elements for business and government agencies.

Established in 1994, BRPASW is an organization for professionals with interest in disaster recovery, business continuity, contingency planning, emergency management, or related fields.

BRPASW provides benefits to its members and acts as a resource to organizations and communities. BRPASW does this by offering educational presentations, sharing information and real life experiences, promoting “best practices” and providing networking opportunities. Membership in BRPASW is open to all industries, both public and private, and all skill and experience levels.

Membership Information

Membership in BRPASW is open to all professionals interested in disaster recovery, business continuity, contingency planning, and related fields.

Individual and corporate memberships are available. A corporate membership provides for an unlimited number of employees with interest in disaster recovery, business continuity, and contingency planning. Current fees can be found on our web site brpasw.com on the tab labeled “Join”.

Member Benefits

- Educational programs for interested members of your organization.
- Access to a wide network of professionals who share your issues and concerns.
- Access to presentations and materials from past meetings.
- Quarterly newsletters.
- Voting privileges.
- Participate in the selection and election of officers.
- Selected discounts on books, videos, workshops, and conferences with our partners.
- Eligibility to earn continuity education credit for DRII certification.

Meetings

Meetings are held on the second Tuesday of the month. Meeting details can be found on the home page of our web site brpasw.com.

Educational programs vary in content and include guest speakers, member presentations, and panel discussions. Subjects are intended for every level of interest, those just starting in the field and those with experience.

Meetings are held nine times a year – January through June and September through November at various locations in the Greater Milwaukee Area.

Most regular education programs require no registration fees for attendance. For certain workshops or luncheon meetings a nominal fee may be required.

Guests are always welcome.

BRPASW members represent over fifty organizations throughout Southeastern Wisconsin including such industries as:

- Banking and Finance
- Health Care
- Insurance
- Manufacturing
- Retail
- Utilities
- Public - Government